One of the first books in the Good Night series to focus on a general environment rather than a specific geographic location, this vividly illustrated board book follows a multicultural group of people during a trip to the zoo. Designed to soothe children before bedtime with rhythmic language while instilling an early appreciation for the wonders of the natural world, this book features adults and children experiencing all that the zoo has to offer while guiding readers through both the passage of a single day and the four seasons.

When an unobservant zookeeper goes home, all the animals he thinks he has left behind in the zoo follow him. On board pages.

For a short time, this new larger edition includes a print signed by Peggy Rathmann! It's bedtime at the zoo, and all the animals are going to sleep. Or are they? Who's that short, furry guy with the keys in his hand and the mischievous grin? Sneak along behind the zookeeper's back and see who gets the last laugh in this riotous good-night romp. The new generous trim size of every toddler's favorite book is even easier to share. With a warm, funny author's note highlighting how much this book has meant to kids and families since it was first published and some clever new details hidden in the illustrations, Good Night, Gorilla is the perfect gift for new babies as well as fans young and old.

to navigate his way out of the zoo and back home where he belongs! Based on the Emmy Award-winning PBS show. In this new book based on the Emmy Award-winning PBS show, Curious George can't wait to see the brand-new baby panda at the zoo. But when George accidentally gets locked into the zoo at night, he has to use maps, landmarks, and his animal instincts to find his way out! Bonus activities help reinforce the concepts in the story, including instructions for building your very own map of your home!

Taking place during the passage of both a single day and the four seasons of the year, this soothing and educational bedtime story celebrates life on a traditional family farm. Children follow a multicultural family through a day on a farm while they learn about how a farm works; what types of crops are grown on a farm, including corn, wheat, cotton, apples, and peaches; and about farm animals, such as horses, cows, goats, sheep, geese, ducks, and chickens. Take a tractor ride, feed the chickens, visit a barnyard, and play in a pumpkin patch in this charming and engaging keepsake.

Welcome to the City of Brotherly Love.
