The Long Paw of the Law (don't you love those titles?) is Diane Kelly's seventh novel featuring Fort Worth Police Officer Megan Luz and her K-9 partner, Brigit. This time the action begins when a man drops a newborn baby off at the fire station where Megan's boyfriend Seth and Brigit's boyfriend Blast work.

~~The Long Paw of the Law (Paw Enforcement, #7) by Diane Kelly~~

The Long Paw of the Law is a story featuring Ashley Crane who's a cook in a restaurant. After her boss is found dead, Ashley decides, much to the annoyance of the police, to give them a helping hand in solving the murder. Food is heavily featured in this book and I would advise not to read it on an empty stomach.

~~The Long Paw Of The Law (Ashley Crane Cozy Mystery Book 1) ...~~

The Long Paw of the Law was an ok read especially if you're looking for a clean (no sex, bad language, gore) read. I thought the writing could be more sophisticated and better developed with more detail (other than about food and cooking smells).

The Long Paw of the Law by Diane Kelly is seventh novel in A Paw Enforcement series. I found The Long Paw of the Law to be well-written and it zipped along at a lively pace (not as fast as Brigit can eat a treat but close). Megan Luz is a developed character who loves her job and her partner, Brigit.
