Retired Spec Ops James Ryker is "drafted" by his former employer to investigate the mysterious death of the Anna Abayev, also known as the deadly assassin Red Cobra. Ryker and Abayez have history together and the backstories and current objectives of both individuals meeting again in Spain's Costa Del Sol drive a strong mystery/thriller with a compelling twist ending.

The Lead Carl Logan aka James Ryker is as bolt and forthright as ever, while at the same time having a quite vulnerable and heart-warming side to himself. And the Red Cobra brings something fresh and intriguing to the table! To cut it short. If you enjoyed Sinclair's Enemy series, Ludlum's Bourne novels or any other high-octane action...

The Red Cobra is a female assassin and boy is she good at her job. I love a strong female character in a novel and it makes a change from the stereo typical woman being weak and needing a man to help her. This woman is a law unto herself and even Logan/Ryker has reason to be concerned when her name resurfaces back in his life.

It's time to meet James Ryker. The Red Cobra: James Ryker thought he had started a new life away from the chaos and violence he couldn't have been more wrong. It's not long, however, before Ryker's short-lived idyll is destroyed when he is tracked down by Peter Winter, his ex-boss at the JIA.

The Red Cobra which is the first book in the James Ryker series totally blew me away. As there is a bit more back ground to Ryker and that The Black Hornet starts where that ends, I would recommend reading it prior to starting this one.

Carl Logan has gone underground with his love, Lisa, and his new identity is as James Ryker. He is still the same man as before but not as rough and tough but still is a "bad boy" in many aspects. He is found by his previous employer and has to find the Red Cobra and kill her for the good of the country.
